

Your Personal Education Consultant

POLYTECHNIC DIPLOMA TO UNIVERSITY DEGREE. Benefits every polytechnic student should consider.

IN SINGAPORE

A polytechnic Diploma may not be enough to secure the job you are eyeing and your progress in terms of salary and growth may be slower

EARN A DEGREE IN LESS THAN 3 YEARS

Many Australian universities including Group of 8 may grant credit exemptions of up to 1.5 years if your GPA is 3.0 and above, subject to the university's confirmation on receiving the course outline of your previous diploma studies in a polytechnic

HOW YOU WILL BENEFIT

As a result of credit exemptions, the duration of your undergraduate program will be shorter and this translates into significant cost savings on tuition fees, student accommodation and living expenses

You will graduate ahead of your cohort, who enrolled in local universities, and get a head start in getting the job you wanted

In your job applications to potential employers, you may highlight the experience you have gained from living and studying overseas and how these will add value to what you bring to the organisation

DIVERSE RANGE OF UNIVERSITIES TO CHOOSE FROM

Many Australian universities accept polytechnic diplomas when assessing applications for undergraduate programs

- 1) The Australian National University, Canberra - Group of 8
- 2) Monash University, Melbourne - Group of 8
- 3) University of Western Australia, Perth - Group of 8
- 4) RMIT University, Melbourne
- 5) Curtin University, Perth
- 6) Murdoch University, Perth
- 7) Edith Cowan University, Perth
- 8) Griffith University, Gold Coast
